Does God want you to read and understand the Bible? _____

Does God want us to read the Bible in our own everyday language, or in a language that we do not understand as well, if at all? _____

Write out 1 John 5:13. What does it mean to you?

Read Acts 17:11. Why were the Jews at Berea complimented—because they believed whatever they were told, or because they searched the Scriptures to make sure that what they were told was from the Bible?

Should we blindly believe whatever our religious leaders say, or should we, too, go to the Bible and see if what we are told is in fact what God's Word really says?

Are you spiritually blind (1 Corinthians 2:14), or have you been born again, made new by the Holy Spirit of God?

Some things in the Bible are plain and clear. Some things are more difficult to understand and require more study and work. Some things we might never fully understand until eternity. How important is it to you to continue reading and studying and learning the Word of God so that you can better know it and follow Jesus every day? _____
