Have you ever read the Bible all the way through? _____

It is easy to form our religious beliefs based upon a church we attend, a book we have read, or what a preacher proclaims. However, the Bible should be our ultimate authority. If a preacher or a book says something different than what the Bible says, we need to go by what the Bible says. Therefore, it is very important that we spend much time with God reading, learning, loving, and living His Word. What is Johann Bengel's first rule for Bible Study?

Many people and groups use the Bible and even quote it (just as Satan did in the garden of Eden and when tempting Jesus in the wilderness), but then promote their own ideas and traditions that are contrary to what the Bible really says and means. Write out Johann Bengel's second rule for Bible study.

Some people read the Bible often, but skip parts that they do not understand or that they think are boring. Some rarely read from the Old Testament or books like Leviticus or 2 Chronicles. Write out Johann Bengel's third rule for Bible study.
